Bra - Band size & cup size

The number in the bra size refers to your rib cage measurement in cm. Measure your rib cage immediately under your bust making sure the tape feels firm and round off to the nearest size. For example, if you measure 72 cm then your size is 70. You can use the size converter below to convert between EUR and Italian sizes.

The letter in the size refers to the cup. If you have tried a size 75B and the cup feels too small, try a 75C instead. The band is the same but the cup is a size bigger.
